Food Lovers

The proximity to the sea and the continent promises food that is both freshly caught and hip. Ståtens Skafferi is also filled to the brim with locally sourced and grown food.

- Dream of Provence in the vineyard at Hälläkra Winery. Take a walk in the vineyard, eat well at Vintoret, or book a wine tasting. The fruits used to make John Taylor's 'Dry Cider' grow in these orchards.
- Weinbergs is a shining star in Skåne's gastronomic sky. Dishes from the farm bistro are served in the magical setting of the orangery, overlooking the garden.
- Grönby Chark's own charcuterie make their stone-baked sourdough pizzas a special treat. Sit back and enjoy, or shop the farm's exclusive range to take home with you.
- At Hallongårde raspberries are grown, sold, cooked, baked and dried by the tonne. You can pick your own fruit, visit the café, say hello to the farm animals, and browse through their lovely shop. In autumn and winter you can make candles, and feast on waffles.
- Stenmarks Lönnugn is the 'secret' garden pizzeria where you pre-book your pizza dough, and pick up your artisanal pizza on your way home.

Shopaholics

Do you love shopping, but want to do it responsibly? Farms and shops with local crafts, trendy brands, vintage, flea markets, and unique charm.

- You'll find interior design for all tastes and styles in the countryside around Trelleborg. From the charm and variety of Agda's Country Shop, Sartzo, and Albert och Jag, to the hand-picked designs of Dahlia och Vänner.
- At Slättarps Gård och Ullahills Magasin, you'll find a nice mix of interior design, fashion and flowers. Here you can also have a coffee, and something nice to eat. Södrast at Smygehuk has a similar style, but also offers children's clothes and toys.
- If you want garden inspiration, and like both interior and exterior design, head to Ting Ute & Inne, Livex, Innergården 7, Tordens Gardcenter or Strandblomman.
- 'Goda Livet på Landet' is a rural network that organises shopping tours and activities all year round. www.godalivetpalandet.se
- During the summer, you will find local handicrafts at Köpmansmagasinet. If you want to visit the artists' studios and galleries, they are listed next to the map on the second page.
- If you love reusing things, Trelleborg is the place for you! At Slättarps Gård, you will find Slow Living Home and A Piece Lux. Wonderful flea markets include Källtorps Loppis, Made by Mi, Loppian och Åspö Retrotorp.

Smyge Enthusiasts

Smygehuk is Trelleborg's main visitor destination, and the southernmost tip of Sweden. Here are some local Smyge tips to spice up your visit.

- Torp look like Star Wars houses? The oldest lime kiln, dating from the mid-19th century, is located between the harbour and Köpmansmagasinet.
- The Smyge Kärr bog is a green oasis that is home to frogs, salamanders and the endangered natterjack toad. Nearby, you will also find a playground and dog exercise area.
- Climb the 17-metre-tall Smygehuk Lighthouse, and enjoy a breathtaking view of the sea and plain.
- If you get hungry during your visit, you'll find seafood at Smyge Fiskrör. Next door is Café Smyge with Sweden's southernmost prawn sandwich, and at Smygehuk Kiosken you'll find a great ice cream selection.
- Don't let the eight lime kilns in Östra
- There is a unique viper population at Smygehuk. It is protected by a snake fence that you will find between the lighthouse and the harbour. Be kind to the snakes, they are protected!
- In one of the Garnhusen houses, where fishermen used to tend to their nets, you will find an exhibition about lime, fishing and the heyday of the Smyge shippers.
- At the southernmost point, there is a barbecue area, selfie spot, boat games, binoculars and a viewing platform at Sweden's southern tip – be careful not to get your feet wet!

Tips & News

Golf

Bring your family and friends to golf on Skåne's southern coast. Did you know that many of our accommodation facilities offer golf packages? They have developed attractive offers in collaboration with Trelleborg's three golf courses.

Vikings

The 26th of June marks the beginning of the summer season at the Trelleborg Viking Fortress, and the new exhibition opens on the same day. From the 8th to the 10th of July, it's time for the annual 'Battle of the Trelleborgen Fortress' with Vikings, a battle show, market, music and children's theatre.

Daredevils can hop on a bicycle, and head out to the Albäckskogen forest!
Two brand new MTB tracks
will open here this summer –
a 250-metre one, and a 1-kilometre track.

Are you after something refreshing to park yourself
up with this summer?
At Sydkustens Gårdsbryggeri, you'll find Mustskäpet, with bag-in-box and bottled apple juice. Self-service applies here, 24/7.

Music Festival

This year's best beach hang can be found at the South Beach Festival music festival at Dalabedet on the 27th of June to the 2nd of July. Artists like Markoolio and Klara Hammarström are already on the programme, which is updated continuously.

Shopping

If it's too cold outside, the hotels in Trelleborg have options. Palm Tree Hotel's relaxation area has an IR sauna, and Smygehuk Havsbad offers a heated outdoor pool. Outdoor swimming experiences can be found at Dannegården and Weinbergs Hotel.

Self-picking is on trend,
and the offering around Trelleborg is broad, including everything from flowers to blueberries. New this year is Bloom & Berså at Hälläkra Wineri, where you can create and pick your bouquet directly in the flowerbeds.

Adventurers

Holidays and free time are great for young and old alike. Head out on an adventure with our top tips for the whole family in your back pocket.

- The southern coast is famous for its lovely, sandy beaches. At Dalabedet, Gislöv, Skåre Skansar, Smygehuk and Beddingestränd, you will also find jetties to swim from.
- If you want to swim in a pool, visit Anderstöv's open-air swimming pool, which has a 25-metre-long pool and a children's pool.
- Out of our oases, the Albäckskogen forest is closest to town. There is a disc golf course, an adventure playground, barbecue spots and a lit trail. New this year are the MTB trails that will be ready this summer for those who don't back down from speed.
- Those curious about golf can try Pay & Play at Tegelberga GK. You can rent all equipment on site, and you don't need a green card.
- Vikings are not the only ones who enjoy the Trelleborgen Viking Fortress. The pond is home to lots of frogs that sing beautifully in summer. Be careful when you visit, the pond is their home.
- In addition to checking out board and hanging by the jetty, the harbour in Trelleborg offers a snorkelling trail that takes you on adventures in the marine nature reserve. To the west of the fishing harbour, there is a playground and a viewing platform where you can watch seals and birds.
- Take a trip back in time to the Trelleborg of the Vikings via the rune stone in Tullstorps, the burial ground at Alböck, and the Vannhög Viking with the fled teeth at Trelleborg's Museum. Above all – experience the Viking Fortress Trelleborgen, which gave the town its name, and has been partially recreated on its original site. A new exhibition on the

History Buffs

This is a place where people have lived for thousands of years. Let the landscape take you on a journey through millennia, and learn more about the fascinating history.

- When the burial ground in Skateholm was found, the history books had to be rewritten. No one knew that there were people living on the southern coast of Skåne as early as during the Old Stone Age. Visit the settlement at Skateholm and Trelleborg's Museum with the findings from the burial ground, and BBC celebrity the Skateholm Woman in the Oga mot Öga (Eye to Eye) exhibition.
- Take a trip back in time to the Trelleborg of the Vikings via the rune stone in Tullstorps, the burial ground at Alböck, and the Vannhög Viking with the fled teeth at Trelleborg's Museum. - history of archaeology and the fortress, seen through the eyes of the mythical seeress, will open here this summer.
- Harbours and fishing harbours are, and always have been, important places. In Gislöv's harbour, there is a veteran boat jetty with historic boats built using a method that is labelled a UNESCO cultural heritage. In the harbours of Skåre and Gislöv, the old fishing boats are still used.
- If you want to deviate from the Sydkustleden trail, let our bike tours from Trelleborg or Smygehuk, guide you. Cycle out on the beautiful plains of Söderslätt, and discover culture, history and destinations.
- Do you prefer to get around on two legs? Look no further than the Skåneleden trail's stretch 22, Fru Alstad – Trelleborg – 13 km of walking through beautiful plains and old villages, and stretch 23, Trelleborg – Skåre – 10 km of walking through Trelleborg and along the coast.
- You can also do a pilgrimage hike from Trelleborg towards Dalby, a hike from monasteries to monasteries. The route is called Mariavägen, and is part of the route between Santiago de Compostela and Nidaros. The church of Fru Alstad is a pilgrimage church, whose central pillar is covered in pilgrim badges.
- The southern coast and the lakes offer great birdwatching. You'll find viewing platforms strategically placed to maximise your experience.
- Fish for perch, pike, sea trout, salmon, garfish, herring and cod along the coast. Fishing is not included in the legal right of access to private land, but you can fish freely with rods and other hand-held equipment along the seashore, except at river mouths.

Outdoor Types

The southern coast is made for a rich outdoor life with Sweden's longest summer creating wonderful opportunities for outdoor enthusiasts.

- The Sydkustleden trail is a national cycle trail that runs along the coast of Skåne between Helsingborg and Simrishamn. Pedal the 35 km in Trelleborg, and take nice breaks along the way.
